DEADLINE NEARS FOR GLENN COUNTY 4-H SUMMER CAMP

The Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program sponsors a resident youth summer camp every year for youth 4th-8th grades (K-3rd grade youth may attend, but they must have an adult chaperone attend camp). (Current 4-H membership is not required.) This year's camp is scheduled for Thursday, July 8, through Sunday, July 11, reports Deanna Rogers, 4-H Program Representative. The camp facilities are located at Camp Tehama in the Lassen National Forest near Mill Creek, California. The average participation is about 80-100 campers from Glenn County each year. The camp is staffed by 4-H personnel, volunteer adult leaders and high school age camp counselors. The 4-H Camp is a rustic camp with the philosophy of providing an exciting outdoor educational experience to as many youth as possible. The goal of the Glenn County 4-H Camp program is to provide youth an opportunity for growth and development in mental, physical, social and leadership skills.

The deadline for enrollment for camp is June 1st, however there is a possibility enrollment may be extended. The cost is $60.00 per person, plus $14.00 for the round trip bus. There is an additional $8.75 fee if the youth is not a current 4-H member. For those adults willing to attend as staff (with duties and responsibilities), the cost is $35.00. Adults are required to attend at least two of the planning meetings. The schedule of planning meetings remaining is as follows Thursday, June 17th, Wednesday, June 30th and Thursday, July 1st at the Glenn Co. 4-H Office in Orland. For an application or more information, please contact the Glenn County 4-H Office, 821 E. South St., Orland or at 865-1107.
