Eighty five 4-H members and thirty one teen counselors from Glenn County 4-H attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama June 26-29th, reports UCCE Glenn County Program Representative Jamie Marron. This year's camp was under the direction of Camp Director Cheryl Massa and Youth Directors Tanner Bailey, Kassidi Buttermore, Steven Habroun, Peyton Massa and Levi Paschall. The theme of the camp was "4-H Camp...The Movie", with each cabin representing a different Disney or Pixar film. There were many activities offered, including archery, fort building, butter making, outdoor cooking, dancing, tie dying, fishing, leather craft, games and crafts. 4-H members had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H members from 3rd grade to 8th grade participated as campers, while the high school 4-H members served as youth counselors.

Youth counselors this year were Emily Beatty, Andrea Boer, Summer Curry, Rylee Deitz, Lacey Embrey, Rebekah Erickson, Taylor Gray, Tucker Hammons, Kaylee Jackson, Rylan Keolanui, Marley Matteucci, Channa Penner, Amanda Poldervaart, Rachel Silva, Rylee Smith, Frida Valle,
