North Valley Dairy Day, January 31st, 2006 Kountry Kitchen, 729 Fourth Street, Orland

Now is the time to call in and make your reservations for the 14th Annual North Valley Dairy Day. The meeting will be held Tuesday, January 31, 2006, at the Kountry Kitchen Restaurant, 729 Fourth Street, in Orland. This meeting is co-sponsored by the University of California and dairy allied industry. It is free of charge, open to the public, and includes an industry-sponsored lunch. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m., and the program runs from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

One of the topics on the program for 2006 is organic milk production. Our guest speaker will be Jon Bansen of Double J Jerseys of Monmouth, Oregon.

Other topics scheduled for the program include organic alfalfa production, the national Johne's eradication program, the national ID program, a statewide survey of the mineral profiles for California feeds and a brief overview of the dairy industry in Kenya and some of the challenges faced in the Kenyan dairy sector.

This meeting is free of charge and open to the public. Please call the Glenn County Extension Office now at (530) 865-1107 to make your seating and luncheon reservation. Please call if you need more information or help with wheelchair accessibility. Call early, as space is limited.
