

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

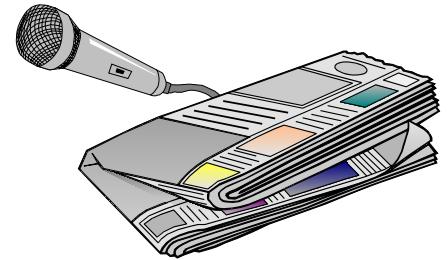

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

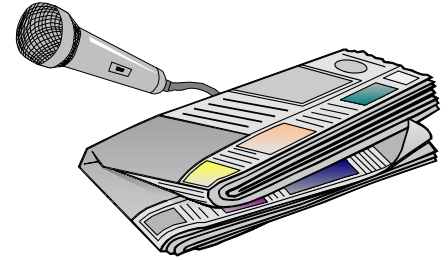

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

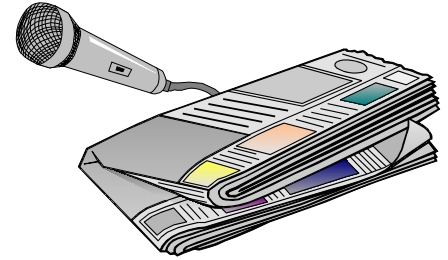

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

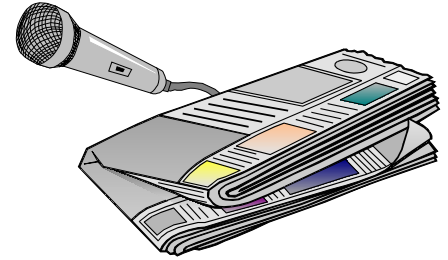

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

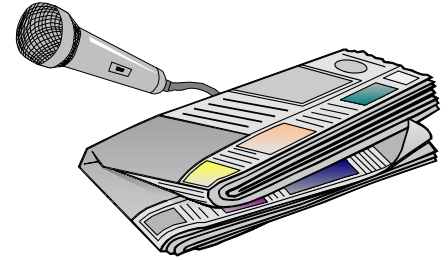

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

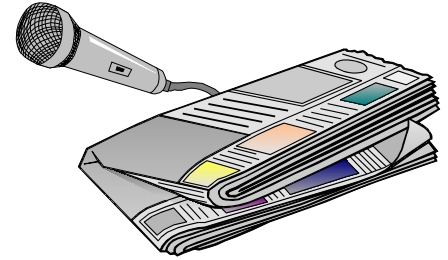

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

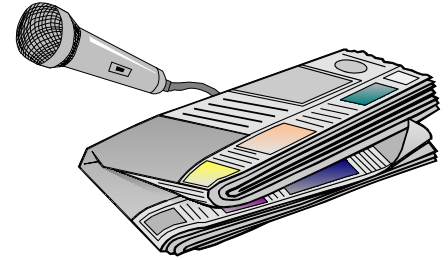

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

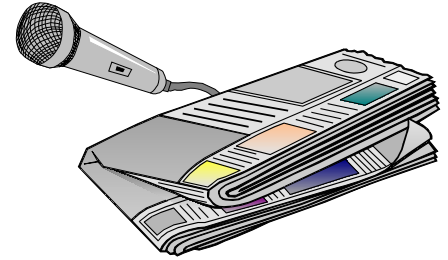

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

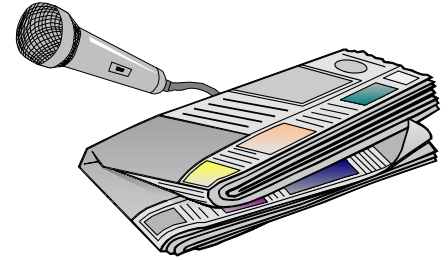

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

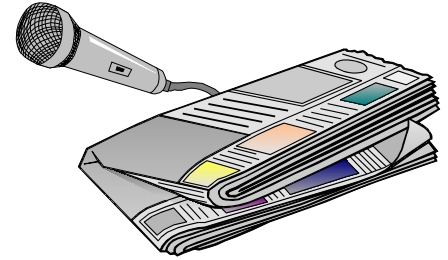

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

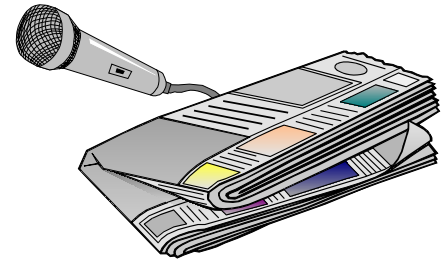

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

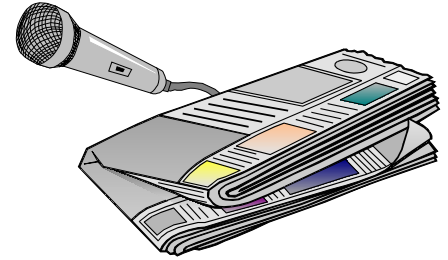

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

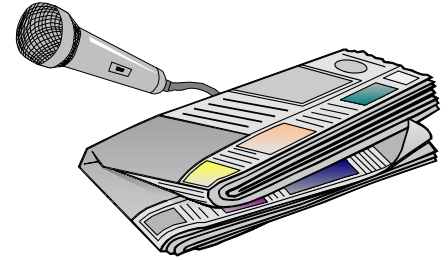

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

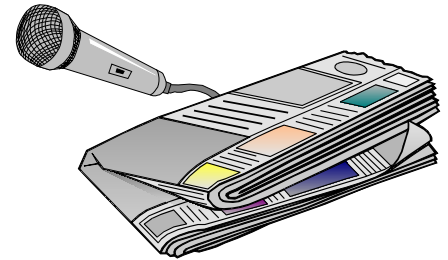

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

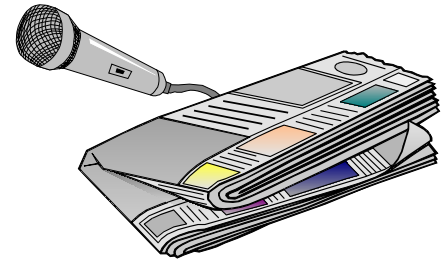

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

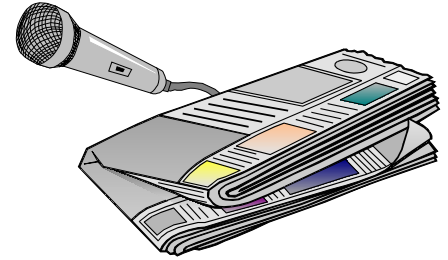

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

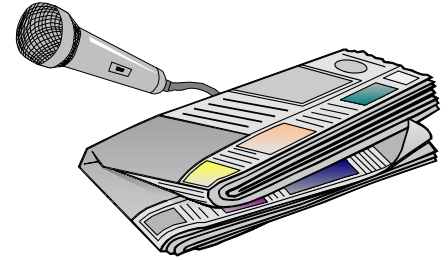

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

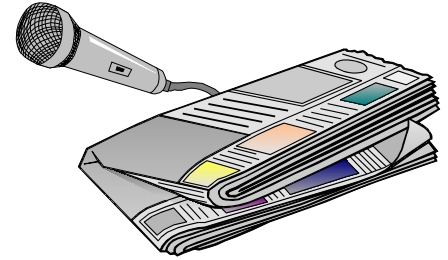

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

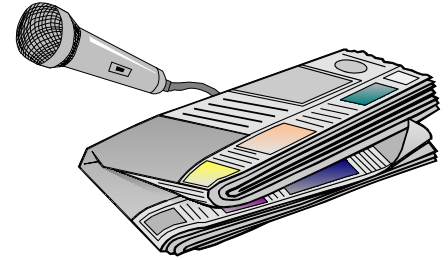

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

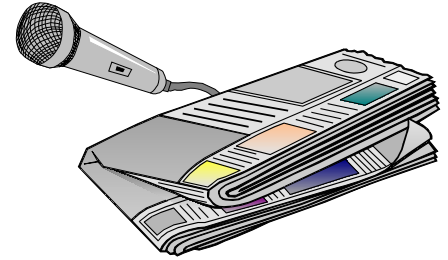

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

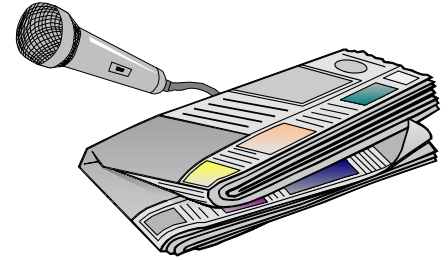

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#

Agriculture Home Economics 4-H

GLENN COUNTY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION NEWS FLASH

May 28, 2004

Deanna Rogers
4-H Program Representative

GLENN COUNTY 2004-2005 4-H ALL STAR WAS SELECTED

One outstanding Glenn County 4-H All Star was selected on Friday, April 16th, for her proven leadership excellence over the years. The new All Star is Meghan Curry of the Clover 4-H Club. This is the highest rank available to a Glenn County 4-H member at the county level. The title of All Star is awarded to candidates based upon two major factors: 1.) Recognition of outstanding accomplishments in the county 4-H Youth Development Program in areas of citizenship, leadership and achievement; 2.) Anticipated ability to serve as an outstanding youth role model, perform public relations functions on behalf of the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program and assist with program development, operations and management functions as requested by the County 4-H Youth Development Program Office. She will join a select few in serving as ambassador for 4-H to sponsors, potential sponsors, community and civic groups, serve as a positive role model for youth and adults, and represent the Glenn County 4-H Program at conferences as assigned by the 4-H Youth Development Office.

Meghan will be a junior at Willows High School and has been in the 4-H program for six years. She has held many officer positions in her 4-H club. She has been a junior/teen leader and camp counselor for several years. She has given numerous gold medal winning demonstrations. Meghan has taken many projects over the years which include swine, horse, rabbit, arts & crafts, foods, leathercrafts and clothing. She is an active member of the Glenn County 4-H Teen Council. This project is for teens to plan and organize community service projects/events. Some of the projects they have worked on are the Farm Bureau Farm Day Petting Zoo, Trick or Treat Canned Food Drive,

Adopt-A Family and the Glenn County Fair Clean-up Day to name just a few. Last year Meghan was the recipient of the Jr./Teen Leader Merit Award for her outstanding work as a Jr./Teen Leader. As the winner of this award, she attended the State 4-H Leadership Conference held at University of California, Davis last August. Meghan is the daughter of Paul and Terri Curry of Willows.

#