4-H' ERS WENT TO "CAMP USA" AT CAMP TEHAMA

Sixty-six 4-H members from Glenn County attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama July 7th-11th, reports Glenn County 4-H Program Representative Deanna Rogers. This year's camp was under the direction of Camp Director Bobbi Fessori and Youth Directors Rachel Eidman and Krista Douglass. The theme of the camp was "Camp USA", with each cabin representing a different state. There were many activities offered, including skit planning, fort building, ice cream making, sport games, fishing, crafts and "The Olympics". 4-H'ers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H'ers from kindergarten through 8th grade participated as campers, with twenty-eight high school 4-H members serving as youth counselors and two serving as youth directors.

Youth counselors included Andrew Acosta, Elizabeth Acosta, Zach Bentz, Brent Bickley, Courtney Brown, Meghan Curry, Dylan Daley, Casey Deitz, Rochelle Douglass, Alex Embrey, Travis Fessori, Melanie Hughes, Annie Kinkle, Natasha Leonard, Julie Long, Jamie Marron, J.T. Minto, Dylan Nunes, Necie O'Rear, Devin Rezendes, Drew Rogers, Ashley Roman, Kyle Scritchfield, Michael Stone, Carol Thurman, Martin Valleza, Lilly Villa and Alex Zuppan.
