2014-15 GLENN COUNTY 4-H ALL STARS ANNOUNCED

Gina Amaro of Clover 4-H Club and Kaylee Jackson of Willows 4-H Club have been selected as the University of California Cooperative Extension Glenn County 4-H All Stars for the 2014-2015 4-H year. This is the highest honor that can be achieved at the county level through the 4-H program. Being an All Star is an opportunity for further experience and growth in leadership and community involvement. These All Stars will represent Glenn County at County, Sectional and State Events. Each year only up to four members are chosen for this honor from an enrollment of 425.

Gina Amaro has been a 4-H member for four years. Gina is a Teen Leader of Teen Council, Cavy, Rabbits and Arts & Crafts projects within her club. She has received her Platinum Star. Gina attends Willows High School. She is the daughter of Diane and Mark Amaro of Willows.

Kaylee Jackson has been a 4-H member for six years. She is currently serving as a B.L.A.S.T. (Becoming an Leader All Star in Training) Team member as well as serving as the Junior Leader for Cake Decorating, Foods & Nutrition, and Sheeps project within her club. Kaylee has also been selected to be a camp counselor at this year's 4-H summer camp. Kaylee attends Princeton High School. She is the daughter of Angela Flanagan of Willows.

This summer Gina and Kaylee will be attending the State 4-H Leadership Conference at the U.C. Santa Cruz. Thank you to our selection panel for their time and effort. It is greatly appreciated.
