4-H'ers Went To

“Camp 4-H...Gettin’ Groovy” at Camp Tehama

Over 70 4-H members, 22 Teen Counselors, 2 Youth Directors and over 30 adult staff from Glenn County 4-H attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama June 18th—21st, reports UCCE Glenn County Program Representative Jamie Marron. This year’s camp was under the direction of Cheryl Massa and Youth Directors Kaylin Renfro and Michael Sanchez. The theme of the camp was “Camp 4-H...Gettin’ Groovy,” with each cabin representing a different music genre. There were many activities offered, including archery, crafts, dancing, fishing, fort building, ice cream making, recreational games, tie-dyeing, and much more. Campers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H members from 3rd grade to 8th grade participated as campers, while high school 4-H members served as youth counselors.

Youth counselors this year were Gina Amaro, Evan Bailey, Emily Beatty, Lauren Brott, Chase Butterfield, Grant Chaney, Travis Chapman, Summer Curry, Rebekah Erickson, Cody Farrell, Taylor Gray, Steven Habroun, Mikaela Hanes, Kaylee Jackson, Rylan Keolanui, Joshua Kitchen, Kim Kohler, Marley Matteucci, Emily McDonald, Ethan Sims, Katherine Taylor and Kathy Valle.
