Glenn County 4-H'ers Went To “Camp 4-H...World Tour” at Camp Tehama

Over 85 4-H members, 21 Teen Counselors, three Youth Directors and 24 adult staff from Glenn County 4-H attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama June 23rd—26th reports UCCE Glenn County Program Representative Sara van Tol. This year’s camp was under the direction of Deanna Rogers and Jamie Marron, along with Youth Directors Michael Sanchez, Summer Curry and Taylor Gray. The theme of the camp was “Camp 4-H...World Tour,” with each cabin representing a different country. There were many activities offered, including archery, crafts, dancing, fishing, fort building, ice cream making, recreational games, tie-dying, and much more. Campers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H members from 3rd grade to 8th grade participated as campers, while high school 4-H members served as youth counselors.
