4-H'ERS WENT TO "CAMP TREASURE ISLAND" AT CAMP TEHAMA

Seventy four 4-H members from Glenn County attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama July 7th-10th, reports Glenn County 4-H Program Representative Deanna Rogers. This year's camp was under the direction of Camp Director Bobbi Fissori and Youth Director Alex Embrey, along with her Advisor Jessica Jorgensen. The theme of the camp was "Camp Treasure Island", with each cabin representing a different port or country. There were many activities offered, including skit planning, fort building, ice cream making, sport games, fishing, crafts and "The Pirate Olympics". 4-H'ers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H'ers from kindergarten through 8th grade participated as campers, with twenty-five high school 4-H members serving as youth counselors.

Youth counselors included Andrew Acosta, Elizabeth Acosta, Chelsea Becerra, Zach Bentz, Kortni Buttermore, Meghan Curry, Casey Deitz, Tami DeMello, Travis Fissori, Frank Howard, Jordan Hughes, Melanie Hughes, Rylee Lamson, Natasha Leonard, Julie Long, Jamie Marron, J.T. Minto, Dylan Nunes, Katie Pendergrass, Devin Rezendes, Drew Rogers, Kyle Scritchfield, Carol Thurman, Martin Valleza and Jake Zuppan. Leaders who provided support and helped with camp were: Nacho Acosta, Dari Bailey, Val Henning, Carolina Bureson, Stephanie Hammons, Robyn Hricik, Susan Polk, Bill Rozak, Susan Shuey, Jeanette Sturzen, Kathleen Orona-Ike and Laura Tripp. Our camp nurse was Bryanna Fissori and our cooks were Debbie Scritchfield, Peg Arnold, Jim

Arnold and Terri Curry. 4-H staff attending camp was Deanna Rogers, Glenn County 4-H Program Representative. Outstanding Boys' Cabin Award went to Travis Fissori & Dylan Nunes' cabin - Boys' Dorm A. The cabin youth members were: Harrison Polk, Trevor Mangum, Shane Kelly, Tanner Bailey, Mitchell Sturzen and Theron Fumasi. Outstanding Girls' Cabin Award went to Meghan Curry's cabin - Girls' Dorm A. The cabin youth members were: Summer Curry, Tucker Hammons, Emmy Henning, Mikayla Burreson, Stevie Orona-Ike and Madison Rich.

The biggest fish caught award went to Kaylen Wilson and the smallest fish award went to Maddie Cullen. The best sportsmanship award for fishing went to Jacob Hrick.

Cabin 20, under the leadership of teen counselors Chelsea Becerra and Katie Pendergrass, won the camp tug-a-war. Cabin members of Cabin 20 were: Julia Zuppan, Maigen Matteucci, Stephanie Evans, Shayna Fissori and Jenna Price. Boy's Dorm B put up a good defense, but were edged out by Cabin 20. Members of Boy's Dorm B were: Johnny Beccera, Ben Howard, Austin Hughes, Garret Close, Mitchel McClough, Hank Henning and Bradley Hall, along with Zach Bentz and Drew Rogers, counselors.

The clean cabin award for the girl's side was a three way tie with Cabin 6, Dorm B and Dorm A. Tami DeMello was the counselor for Cabin 6 and her cabin mates were: Rachelle Zuppan, Mikayla Boer, Tori Shuey, Loretta Howard and Laura Ferreira. Dorm B members were Leticia Garcia, Megan Sturzen and Tommi Hammons, along with their counselor Julie Long. Summer Curry, Tucker Hammons, Emmy Henning, Mikayla Burreson, Stevie Orona-Ike, Madison Rich and counselor Meghan Curry were the members of Dorm A.

On the boy's side Dorm A was the winner of the Clean Cabin Award. Travis Fissori and Dylan Nunes were the counselors and their campers were: Harrison Polk, Trevor Mangum, Shane Kelly, Tanner Bailey, Mitchell Sturzen and Theron Fumasi.
