4-H'ERS WENT TO "CAMP BLAST FROM THE PAST AND INTO THE FUTURE" AT CAMP TEHAMA

Seventy three 4-H members and forty three teen counselors from Glenn County attended the annual 4-H Summer Camp held at Camp Tehama July 7th-10th, reports Glenn County 4-H Program Representative Deanna Rogers. This year's camp was under the direction of Camp Director Bobbi Fissori and Youth Directors Meghan Curry, Elizabeth Acosta, Julie Long and Tami DeMello. The theme of the camp was "Camp Blast From The Past And Into The Future", with each cabin representing a different era in time. There were many activities offered, including skit planning, fort building, ice cream making, sport games, fishing, crafts and "The Olympics". 4-H'ers had the opportunity to experience an outdoor setting conducive to learning how to get along with others and learn the value of participation. 4-H'ers from kindergarten through 8th grade participated as campers, while the high school 4-H members served as youth counselors.
