2008-09 GLENN COUNTY 4-H ALL STARS ANNOUNCED

Staci Bettencourt of the Clover 4-H Club, Eric Massa of the Clover 4-H Club, Anna Poldervaart of the Plaza 4-H Club and Lena Polk of the Elk Creek 4-H Club were selected as the Glenn County 4-H All Star Team for the 2008-09 4-H year. This is the highest honor that can be achieved at the county level through the 4-H program. Each year only up to four members are chosen for this honor out of an enrollment of 450 members.

Staci is a 10 year 4-H member and has been involved in the Foods & Nutrition, Swine, Teen Council and Rabbit projects. This is Staci's second year serving as an All Star. Additionally, she has been a Jr. Leader for the Arts & Crafts project. Staci is a sophomore at Willows High School and is the daughter of John and Melody Bettencourt of Willows.

Eric is an 11 year 4-H member and has been involved in the arts & crafts, cooking, small engines, sheep, Teen Council and Junior Leader projects. He has also held many offices within his 4-H club. He has been a 4-H camp counselor for four years. Eric is a junior at Willows High School and is the son of Eugene and Cheryl Massa of Willows.

Anna is a nine year 4-H member and has been involved in the horse, dairy, veterinary science and Teen Council projects. She is currently serving as one of the BLAST (Becoming a Leader - All Star in Training) team members. Anna is a freshman at Willows High School and is the son of Ad and Kathy Poldervaart of Orland.

Lena is a seven year 4-H member and has been involved in leathercraft, community pride, veterinary science, food preservation, swine and Junior Leader projects. She, too, is currently serving as a BLAST team member. She is a freshman at Elk Creek High School. Lena is the daughter of Susan Polk of Elk Creek.

The All Stars will be attending the State 4-H Leadership Conference, July 31st - August 3rd, at the University of California, Davis.
