2008 GLENN COUNTY 4-H SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

Seven outstanding Glenn County 4-H graduating seniors were selected April 8, 2008, to receive a total of $3,100.00 in scholarships, reports Glenn County 4-H Program Representative Deanna Rogers. Those receiving scholarships are Jamie Marron, Andrea Jones, Drew Rogers, Casey Deitz, Courtney Brown, Mallory Vader and Kyle Scritchfield.

Jamie Marron, of the Schaffert 4-H Club, is the recipient of a $500.00 scholarship. She has been in 4-H for 11 years and is a senior at Corning High School. She plans to attend California State University, Chico, to earn a Bachelor's Degree in agricultural education to become a teacher. Jamie obtained the highest 4-H rank available at the county level, that of an All Star and has earned her Platinum Star. Her main projects have been scrapbooking, market beef, veterinary science, College Bound Project and Teen Council. In the Market Beef Project, Jamie has been a Jr. or Teen Leader for four years. Jamie is the daughter of Leslie Marron of Orland.

Andrea Jones, of the Plaza 4-H Club, is also a recipient of a $500.00 scholarship. She has been a 4-H member for nine years and is a senior at Hamilton City High School. She plans to attend either Pacific University or Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and major in kinesiology, then attend graduate school to become a physical therapist. She has taken many projects over the years, but dried flower arranging, clothing, scrapbooking and market beef are her most recent. Andrea has also earned her Platinum Star. She is the daughter of Jim and Diane Jones of Orland.

Drew Rogers of the Lake 4-H Club is the recipient of a $450.00 scholarship. He has been a 4-H member for 13 years and is a senior at Corning High School. Drew plans to attend Butte Community majoring in Agriculture or Natural Resources. His most recent projects include swine, Teen Council and being a Teen Leader. Drew has also earned his Platinum Star. He is very involved in 4-H summer camp, and was recently selected as one of the youth directors for this year's summer camp. He is the son of Denny and Deanna Rogers of Corning.

Casey Deitz of the Capay 4-H Club is the recipient of a $450.00 scholarship. He is a 13 year 4-H member and a senior at Corning High School. Casey plans to attend Shasta Community College in the field of construction, specializing in plumbing. Recently, he has been involved in the market beef and dairy replacement heifer projects. Casey has obtained his Gold Star. He has also been a counselor at 4-H summer camp. He is the son of Wade and Shirley Deitz of Orland.

Courtney Brown of the Capay 4-H Club is the recipient of a $400.00 scholarship. She has been a 4-H member for 11 years and is a senior at Mercy High School. She plans to attend University of California, San Diego, or Santa Clara University majoring in marketing and advertising of agricultural products. She has earned her Gold Star. She has been involved as a counselor at 4-H summer camp. Courtney has been involved in swine, scrapbooking and the College Bound Project. Courtney is the daughter of Steve and Shelly Brown of Orland.

Mallory Vader of the Lake 4-H Club is the recipient of a $400.00 scholarship. She has been a 4-H member for 6 years and is a senior at Corning High School. Mallory plans to attend Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, or University of California, Davis, to earn a degree in kinesiology or exercise biology to pursue a health career. Mallory has participated in swine, food preservation, cupcake decorating and photography. Mallory has earned her Gold Star. She has held many offices within her club. She is the daughter of Bill and Nanette Vader of Orland.

Kyle Scritchfield of the Willows 4-H Club is the recipient of a $400.00 scholarship. He has been a 4-H member for 13 years and is a senior at Willows High School. Kyle plans to attend Butte Community College in the fall to become a certified welder. He has been involved in the swine, rabbit and beef projects, and has been a Jr. and Teen Leader. Kyle has earned his Gold Star. He has been involved in 4-H summer camp as a camper and as a counselor. Kyle is the son of Ben & Debbie Scritchfield of Willows.
